

Asian Pacific American Town Hall Meeting February 22, 2006

APACC, CAPA (Council of Asian Pacific Americans), and MAPABA (Michigan Asian Pacific American Bar Association) hosted an "Asian Pacific American Town Hall Meeting" on February 22, 2006 at the Chinese Community Center in Madison Heights, MI. The topic was Affirmative Action. A seasoned panel was set to discuss various affirmative action issues including: what is affirmative action and what are its intentions; how does affirmative action impact Asian Pacific American businesses and communities; and should I vote "Yes" or "No" on the proposed anti-affirmative action ballot. The discussion was moderated by Lawrence G. Almeda, President-Elect of MAPABA.

Peter Wong APACC Pres. Denise Yee APACC Exec. Dir. Dean Frank Wu Dr. William Allen
Katherine Lee CAPA Pres. & Lawrence G. Almeda Esq. Pres.-elect MAPABA

APA Townhall Meeting

Asian Pacific American Town Hall Meeting February 22, 2006

Q & A Session

Dean Frank Wu & Dr. William Allen

Welcome Remarks from Lawrence G. Almeda Esq. MAPABA